The Class

Samuel Ameen

125 Congress Street

Generally quiet, but from his tongue flow witticisms when he decides to speak. "Sam" is what they call him, a short name for a short boy. When we said "short" we meant in height, but he is quite outstanding in personality and spirit. Never boisterous, always calm; yes, that's our "Sam."

Thomas Joseph Annunziata

243 Lafayette Street

A jolly fellow who always has a few good words to say to everyone he meets. His wonderful personality enables him to make friends easily. Because of this great asset we all know that he will succeed in everything that he may set out to do. If ever you are feeling low, see "Joe."

January

Vincent Antenucci

115 Prospect Street

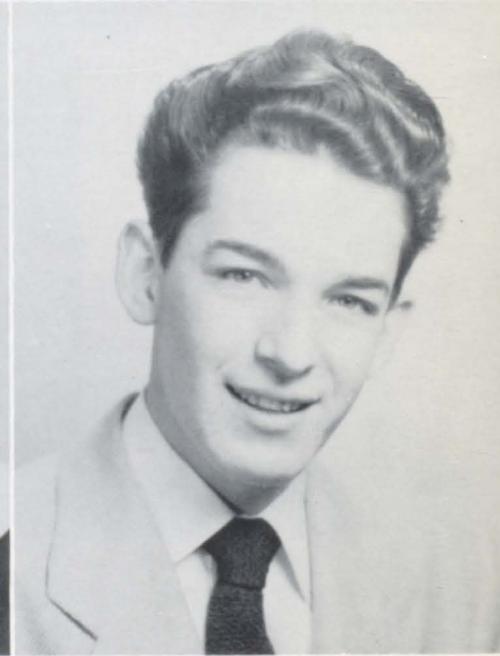

"Vinnie" is a favorite with everyone in the class because of his wonderful personality and his ever-present smile. He is an avid baseball fan and can always give the latest scores or predict the outcome of future games. Best of luck to a wonderful fellow.

Patricia Lucille Attanasio

260 Jefferson Street

This pretty girl's charming personality has made her known to and loved by all. Energetic and vivacious, she has taken part in many activities. With her initiative and leadership she will surely reach the top rung in the ladder of success.

Vincent Patsy Basile

292 Van Buren Street

Vinnie, as all his friends call him, is one of the best known boys in school. His pleasing personality and jovial attitude are the reason for his having so many friends among the faculty members and his schoolmates. His dark curly hair is only one more of the many attractions which Vinnie has.

1951

Robert A. Bauman

117 New York Avenue

An infectious grin and reddish-brown hair are two of Robert's greatest attractions. Bob is simply wild about horses, which is rather unusual for a city boy. He hasn't quite decided what he'll do after graduation but we wish him success in whatever field he decides to enter.

Helen Blajsa

80 Jackson Street

Helen is a rather shy girl until you get to know her, but under that quiet exterior lies a wonderful sense of humor. After she graduates, Helen intends to become a telephone operator.

Anthony Bonavico

194 Jefferson Street

Known to his intimates as Tony, he is near-brilliant and aggressive. He is a favorite of most of his teachers because of these two outstanding characteristics. His personality equals his intelligence, although he sometimes tries to hide it under a seemingly cold exterior.

William Frederick Brenner

107 Brill Street

Tall, blond, and with an ever-present crewcut, his quiet but friendly manner has won him many friends. Bill was class president for a term. Bill plans to become an engineer, a field in which we are sure he will succeed.

Dolores Del Rio Brown

175 Pennington Court

Dolores is calm and efficient, known to all as "Dee". She is a friendly girl who can be relied upon for a cheerful word when you are feeling blue. Her philosophy of life is "patience and fortitude and things will come your way".

Peter Joseph Broznak

76 Elm Road

Pete is a quiet fellow when there are girls around, and he enjoys tinkering with his car. This is probably due to his love of anything mechanical. After graduation he plans to become a mechanic. We wish him luck in his chosen career and we also hope his car lasts.

Donald Carkhuff

204 Sherman Avenue

Known to all of us as Don, he is shy and modest. Don believes that silence is golden, and because of this he is quite popular with his teachers as well as with fellow students. He has his head in the clouds because his greatest ambition is to be an aeronautical engineer. He loves to fish and hunt and is a good shot. We wish him success.

January

Janet Catena

51 Wilson Avenue, Kearny

Better known to us as "little Janet," this is a girl the class could not do without. Her radiant smile and big brown eyes tell us that her personality is a winning one. Janet intends to go into business when she graduates.

John Frederick Cavicchia

57 Keer Avenue

Johnnie is a favorite with everyone. He has an attractive personality and he is an excellent worker. He did the lighting for all our dances and made the magic show a great success. Our class says "thank you" and good luck.

Amelia Cernadas

276 Conklin Avenue, Hillside

A girl whose charm and personality will aid her a great deal in having a successful future. Her ambition in life is to become a Spanish-American translator, for which she is studying at a special school in New York. We will always remember her as the girl with the smile.

1951

Michael Chabra

97 Jackson Street

Mike is known as "the grocer boy" to most of his friends in school. He is a good looking fellow with a quiet personality, and is a hard working guy both at home and in school. Mike intends to go into the army after he graduates. Good luck.

Anna Chin

206 Mulberry Street

Anna attracts many friends with her charming smile, quiet nature and even temperament. Her sense of humor will make her well-liked wherever she goes. Her plans for the future, while not now definite, will include only the best.

Marion Conforti

144 South Street

When dullness hits a new low it's then that Marion makes everybody happy with a corny joke. A fun-loving girl always ready to have a good time. Her bright cheery smile has rescued us from many a dull day.

John Patrick Cross

153 Elm Street

A boy who, in his quiet way, has a personality which helps him to gain friends fast and to keep these friends. He is one who will be a success in anything that he may have a desire to do or to be. John is a friend of everyone, so no one will forget him.

Marianne Patricia Csuray

62 Garden Street

Smart and sophisticated are the words which describe this charming young miss. Smart clothes, a winning smile and a charming manner are but a few of Marianne's many attributes. Using these as effectively as she has, we know she will be a sure bet for the ladder of success.

Arlindo Alves De Almeida

18 Madison Street

Tall, good-looking Arlindo is truly a wonderful person. Ever ready to listen and to tell a good joke, this lad is listed among the "regular guys" on his classmates' hit parade.

Daniel Di Leo

42 North Eleventh Street

"Danny Boy" is a very conscientious student. He is liked by all his classmates for his shy ways and winning smile. His lackadaisical manner makes anyone who meets him feel right at home. Danny has no plans after graduation.

January

Julia Dominguez

153 Union Street

Julia is Spain's gift to the January 1951 Class. A young lady with a modest, unassuming personality may be the way best to describe her. She has no definite plans for after graduation, but will probably enter business.

Arthur A. J. Dres, Jr.

114 Ferguson Street

Serious, shy, silent; all of these adjectives fit Art. While he may be quiet most of the time he can speak his mind when the time comes. He is a lad who will go far, probably by way of the sea since he is already in the Naval Reserve.

Joan Edwards

271 Mulberry Street

Joan is the type of girl that anyone would be proud to know. She has a winning smile, a sweet disposition, and sparkling blue eyes! To add to her many attributes, she also is adept at culinary capers. She plans to continue her education in college. No matter where she goes, Joan will never be forgotten.

1951

José M. Espasa

113 Chelsea Avenue

When we think of Joe we immediately recall his friendly smile, one of the reasons why he is liked by all his classmates. Good luck, we will always remember you.

Joseph J. Fancera

136 Delancy Street

Joe loves fun and laughter. He laughs not only with his lips, but also with his eyes. He doesn't dance much, but we can always depend on him to be at our school gatherings.

Margaret Mary Fitz

120 South Street

Marge is the gal with both the charming smile and a serious look. She is bashful and shy to a certain extent, but is always ready for fun. No gathering is ever complete without our Marge.

Rita Fogler

232 Ferry Street

Rita, with her winning personality, immediately made friends when she arrived at East Side. She is well-liked by both students and teachers, and wherever there is a gabfest you'll find her. Rita plans to be a nurse, and we are sure she will be a successful and charming one.

Antonio Fonseca

8 Clover Street

Tony has a way about him that causes you to like him as soon as you meet him. His wonderful personality always keeps his friends in good spirits. We all wish Tony a lot of success in his chosen field.

Marie Anna Gagliardi

170 Oliver Street

Marie, known to us all as "Red" because of her beautiful, curly, auburn hair, is a favorite with everyone. Her wonderful personality and sweet smile attract people immediately.

Frances Garcia

153 Union Street

"Charming" can be used to describe this petite young lady. We are sure that Frances, with her quiet and sincere manner, will be the successful secretary she plans to be.

January

John Robert Gawlik

412 Greylock Parkway, Belleville

John is a rather quiet boy whose main interest lies in the field of mechanics. He enjoys and has made a hobby of taking care of cars. His favorite subject is mechanical drawing and after graduation he would like to become a pilot.

Josephine C. Genovese

108 Tichenor Street

"I will because I think I can," fits Jo perfectly. A glance at the scholastic records will prove this readily. Jo has combined her talents well, as she is not only brilliant in mind, but she also possesses a fine personality.

Doris Maureen Giantomas

229 Elm Street

Doris is the girl with the personality smile, roguishly gleaming brown eyes, and a cute button nose. She plans to make modeling her career when she graduates. She is known to all as the pretty girl who models clothes in the fashion shows. By looking at Doris, our "model" student, we know she will succeed in her career.

1951

Obdulia Guerrero

71 Ferry Street

Delia is well known by her classmates for her charming ways and her very lovely complexion. Besides doing secretarial work at East Side she is attending the Poza Business School where, in addition to secretarial subjects, she is studying Spanish and exporting. She plans to work at a job where these studies will be of value.

Fred Elwyn Klena

106 Komorn Street

Friendly and always ready with something to make you laugh, "Tex," as he is known to his friends, is well liked by everyone. He is a very good student, and a great swimmer. His wonderful personality and ready wit will be of value to him in whatever field he chooses.

Emde Koehn

385 Mulberry Street

Emde made many friends when he entered East Side. He is well-liked by all his schoolmates and the faculty. One of the best dressers in school, he is a gentleman at all times, and has a wonderful sense of humor. With a combination like this we're sure he will achieve his ambition, which is to become a biology teacher.

Lorraine Maria Kowalick

42 Maine Street

Lorraine is an attractive light-haired girl with a charming personality. She feels that she would like to study nursing after graduation, but she hasn't planned definitely. We wish her luck, no matter what road to success she follows.

Margaret Elizabeth Lawson

54 Walnut Street

A quiet but charming girl is our Marge. Her ambition has always been to become a nurse, and with her quiet, but helpful, manner we're sure she'll be a great success. She plans to enter training at City Hospital after graduation.

Kathryn Ann Lazorchak

42 Darcy Street

Kate entered East Side with the thought in mind of becoming a nurse. She loves basketball, and has played much. Barrels of luck and happiness to Kate in her future years.

Faust Lemos

111 Ferry Street

A wonderful personality along with black wavy hair and a friendly smile make Faust one of the most popular boys in our class. His unassuming manner has made him a favorite with not only his fellow students, but also with his teachers. He has no definite plans for the future.

January

Theresa Lopes

121½ Jackson Street

Terry, as she is known to all her friends, is always cheerful and ready with a smile for everyone. She is always full of vim and vigor. And she loves to dance. With her pep and cheerfulness we have no doubt about her success in the future.

Eleanor Lorczak

200 Ferry Street

Sweet Eleanor, with those sparkling eyes, has been liked by everyone since the first days of her freshman year. El has been studying secretarial work and plans to enter business. Like many others, El loves music and dancing, and she plays the piano.

Patsy Nicholas Lorusso

307 Elm Street

Pat is the kind of a fellow everyone would like to have as a friend. With his wonderful sense of humor and his bright smile he is well-liked by us all. We envy Pat because he spent a year in sunny Florida, but we were sure glad to get him back. Here's luck to a swell fellow who is sure to achieve his ambitions.

1951

Joseph Nicholas Lupo

99 Barbara Street

Although Joe, an ex-Setonian, came to us in his Senior year, he has made a great many friends and is well-liked by his classmates as well as his teachers. Joe has prepared for college, and it is his ambition to become a mechanical dentist.

Dolores Gloria Malanda

188 South Street

"Dee" is one of the sweetest little girls in the class. She has a personality which wins friends and makes for popularity. She intends to study nursing. We wish her luck.

Thomas Peter Marasco

243 Jefferson Street

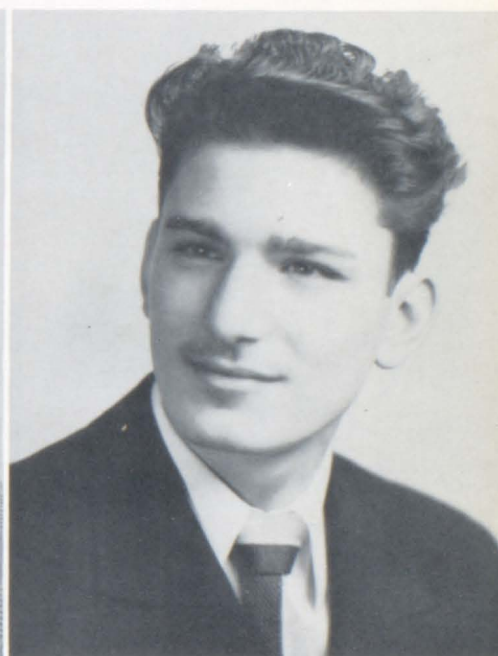

Tom is a rather shy and modest fellow who has been a great asset to East Side's football team. He is the kind of a boy who can be depended upon to lend a hand when it is needed. He is thought of by the rest of the fellows as a "regular guy."

Elias Alfred Martinez

428 South 13th Street

Elias is one of the many persons who will long remain in the minds of his classmates. We will remember him as being a very happy fellow who is always ready to look on the brighter side of things. He, in his calm fashion, is likely to achieve whatever he has planned for.

Michael Joseph Moccio

105 Nichols Street

Mike's slogan should be "Always leave them laughing", because he is always ready with a joke or a smile to cheer you up. With his wonderful personality and ready smile we are sure he will make a success of whatever career he undertakes.

Joseph L. Nasiatka

40 Hawkins Street

Joe, a tall, friendly fellow, is called "Nails" by his classmates. With his smile and grand sense of humor Joe is a fellow you will enjoy very much. Since he came to East Side he has grown like a weed, and when he graduates we hope he will climb the ladder of success as fast as he has grown in school.

John Richard Natale

289 Walnut Street

"Twinkle Toes," as John is known to his friends, has proven during his stay at East Side that size in the athletic world isn't everything. Little Johnny was a star second baseman on our City Chamionship baseball team, and he is also a superb dancer.

January

Margaret Ann Neves

322 Lafayette Street

Short and cute, Margie always keeps us in stitches with her jokes and stories. But aside from this she is always ready to lend a helping hand whenever it is needed. We're certain she will make a success of whatever career she chooses.

Louis Nitti

15 Warwick Street

Louis, quiet and unassuming, is known to us as Lou. He plans to further his education by studying engineering. We'll always remember Lou, the guy with the "all purpose" station-wagon which carried the leaves and corn-stalks used for our Hallow-e'en Dance.

John Michael Notte

12 Goble Street

John is quite a tall boy with a broad bright smile, whose dark curly hair is only one of his many attractions which shouldn't be left unmentioned. He is outstanding also as one of the school's best football players. With all these many assets and attractions John will not fail.

1951

Manuel Fernandes Oliveira

54 Monroe Street

Manny is the envy of all the girls because of his curly hair, and the envy of all the boys because of his good looks. He loves to dance and is excellent at it. He is quite modest about his looks and dancing ability.

Consiglia Maria Padovano

365 Walnut Street

That pretty little dark-haired girl with the personality smile is the one that everyone calls "Connie." She is intelligent and very well spoken of by her teachers and her classmates. Let us not forget Connie.

Anthony Carmen Palumbo

51 Clover Street

Tony, as he is called, is a happy-go-lucky person, who tries to take everything in his stride. He always has a smile for his fellow classmates. He has many friends, who respect and admire him for his attractive personality and curly black hair.

Anthony Joseph Parrillo

247 Lafayette Street

Joe is a tall and rather quiet boy. He is greatly interested in sports, particularly basketball. On the scholastic side Joe's favorite subject is English. After graduation he plans to continue his education by attending college.

Rosina Lucy Partesi

11 Nichols Street

Rosina is a sweet and modest girl, always ready with a flashing smile for everyone. She is a whiz at accounting and bookkeeping. She will be remembered for her wonderful disposition and her ability.

Salvatore J. Picariello

32 Warwick Street

They say good things come in small packages, and if you have ever seen Sal play varsity football, you know it to be true. He long ago made a hit with his warm smile and winning personality and he is also one of the best dressers in our class. Sal has not made any definite plans as yet.

Rocco Policastro

296 Elm Street

"To find a foe it shall not be his hap." This fits Rocco readily. His cheerful disposition and willingness to work with his classmates have made him popular among all. We are sure Rocco will reach anything for which he strives.

January

Josephine Ann Ponticello

96 Union Street

Jo is a sweet, happy-go-lucky girl who is very friendly with everyone. She plans to enter the department of some big store, and if she makes her way through selling, she plans to advance herself in merchandising.

Michael James Rainone

35 Warwick Street

Mike, the laughing boy, is a good looking fellow. His personality is tops and there is never a dull moment when he is around. Mike intends to go into the business field when he graduates. We wish him a lot of luck.

Russell Alexander Raney

218½ Chestnut Street

Rus is very quiet and shy, but he is always ready with a pleasant smile or an added witicism whenever his friends are around. He played in the band for three years and hasn't decided just what he'll do after graduation, but we know he'll be successful.

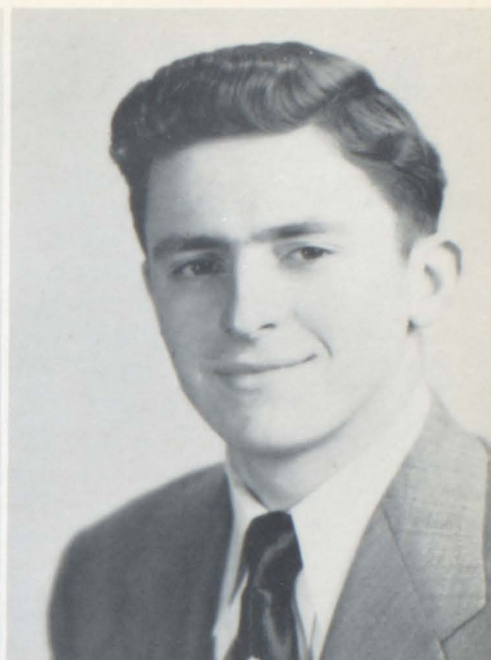

1951

Jack Fernandes Raposo

3 Nichols Street

Jackie is a quiet fellow, but once you get to know him you find him very friendly. He has no special plans for after graduation, but since he belongs to the Marine Reserve he will probably go into service.

Martin Anthony Reynolds

43 Gotthart Street

Martin is a sort of quiet guy, but he is very friendly. He would someday like to be an executive of some big business concern. It may take some time before he gets to be boss—but we all hope that he makes it.

James Joseph Rodriguez

65 New York Avenue

Jimmy is quite a remarkable fellow. He is very versatile indeed, being able to play the trumpet, write short stories and poetry, and he is a good dancer as well. He was class treasurer for a term.

Ida Julia Rossi

126 Prospect Street

One of our classmates who is perfect of form and face, she has a smile that can brighten the gloomiest day. Ida is a very sophisticated girl who enjoys reading. She intends to enter into the business field and wherever she goes we know that her radiant smile and friendly attitude will win her scores of friends.

Joseph Anthony Russo

69 Napoleon Street

Joe is one of the most quiet members of our class, but he does not go by unnoticed. Joe's conscientious attitude and his outstanding politeness, have marked him as a man. We are sure all his classmates will agree to this and we all express our profound hope that Joe's ambitions materialize.

Theresa Edith Russo

206 Elm Street

Terry is outstanding not only in her school work, but also in her extra-curricular activities. She plans to attend Montclair State Teachers College where she will take a business education course in order to become a teacher. We will remember Terry as a very busy person who is always trying to please everyone.

Mary Mildred Sabak

33 Garrison Street

Mary intends to become a secretary, a position for which she seems to possess all the aptitudes. She is a shy girl, with a simple, sweet smile and she enjoys most sports, but has no favorite. We are sure that she will make a perfect secretary.

January

John Lorrain Sabin

71 Ferry Street

John is one of the jolliest members of our class. With his flashing smile and sparkling blue eyes he has won the friendship of many of his classmates. He is technically inclined and has all the aptitudes with which to enter the technical field. We can truly say that John will be remembered as one of the many outstanding members of our class.

Angela Saggese

97 Warwick Street

Angela is a very conscientious young lady who is greatly interested in music and in fashions. With so many openings in both of these fields and Angela's charming personality how can she help but be a success? Best of luck to a wonderful girl.

Viola Lucille Scarola

63 Taylor Street

Viola appears to be a very quiet, shy sort of girl but actually this isn't so. Those who are acquainted with her find that she is quite talkative and is an extremely nice person to know. After graduation, Viola has intentions of working as a secretary. We wish her the best of luck.

1951

William Joseph Scarola, Jr.
63 Taylor Street

A regular fellow and a nice person to know, Bill came to East Side in the latter part of his second year, and immediately made a lot of friends. He is an excellent student and is always ready to lend a helping hand to the teachers as well as his fellow classmates. We wish him success in his career.

Rose Anna Scoca
134 New York Avenue

Rose Anna, because of her attractiveness and pleasing disposition, is liked by all her classmates. She is known to all as "Roe." Roe was once a twirler and still can be seen at most of the games. Bowling is tops with her and baseball is another of her favorites. Her plans after graduation aren't definite as yet.

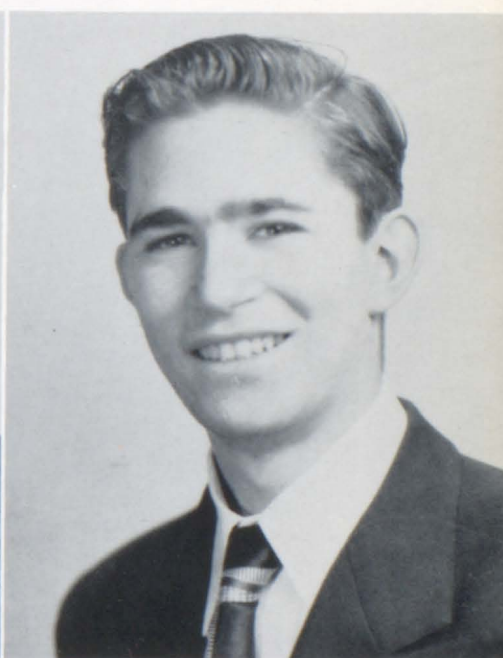

Joseph Segreto
108 New York Avenue

An extremely jolly fellow never to be forgotten by his classmates for his humor, Joe is a tall good looking blond with blue eyes and a smiling face and who is likely to achieve whatever goal he has in mind.

Nicholas John Serio
433 Springfield Avenue

Nick, as he is known to all of us, possesses that unique combination of being tall, dark, handsome, shy, modest, and considerate. Who could ask for more? Nick has no definite plans for the future, but with the initiative he has shown we are sure opportunity will always be knocking at his door.

Leonard Smith
116 Ferry Street

Leonard is a quiet, unassuming lad who can be depended upon always. He plans to further his education by studying radio announcing techniques. So far he has been quite apt in public speaking and we know he will succeed in his chosen field.

Janet Marie Sousa

214 Van Buren Street

Janet is one of the sweetest girls in our class. Her pleasing personality and winning ways have made her popular with everyone. Here's hoping she makes a success of whatever field she chooses.

Julia Agnes Valdes

90 Elm Street

Here, indeed, is a rare person. Good marks, good looks, plus a winning personality. How can she not succeed in her chosen career, to become a physician? Julie not only works hard in school, but also works after school at the Newark Public Library. She attended the Encampment for Citizenship this summer and found the activities most interesting.

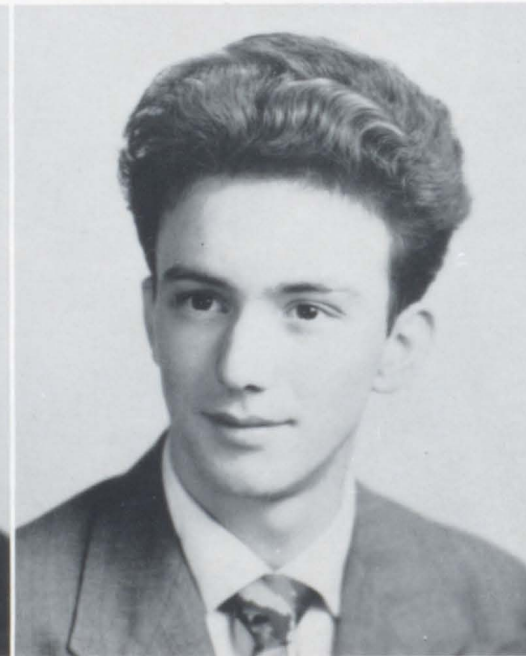

January

Anthony Valente

268 East Kinney Street

Tony is one of our outstanding football players and he is also a good student. Thinking of Tony, we must remember that in all activities requiring teamwork there will always be an unsung hero. That is the essence of teamwork to attain a full degree of success. We all will miss Tony on the field, as well as in school, when he graduates.

Sam Matthew Verderese

288 Walnut Street

Sammy is regarded as one of the class comedians. Whenever "Sambo" is around you can be sure of having a few laughs. If ever there is a group singing you will be sure to find him in the middle, leading and singing the loudest.

James Anthony Viero

71 Ferry Street

Jimmy, one of our jolliest classmates, will be remembered for his singing between classes. He was a wonderful player on the gridiron. With his warm smile, his curly hair, and friendly personality, we know he will succeed in the business world as he did on the football field.

1951

Joseph Victor Volpe
185 Walnut Street

Joe is a fellow who appears to be bashful and shy, but wait until he gets started. Then you can't keep him quiet. His thoughtfulness and willingness to help others are reasons for his being so well liked by all his classmates.

Winston Edna West
29 Beach Street

Winnie is a classmate whom we all shall miss after graduation. She, with her cheerful disposition and her willingness to cooperate at all times, has found a great many friends in her four years at East Side. We are confident that she will succeed in her plans to become a pharmacist.

Joan Valerie Wilkens
7 Kossuth Street

Joan, the one with honey-colored hair and bright blue eyes, is a girl we greatly admire. She will continue her education in secretarial studies. We know that she will succeed in all she undertakes. Joan likes basketball, her favorite sport and pastime.

Joseph John Wladyka
42 Hawkins Street

Many students know Joe by his blond, curly hair and his friendly smile, and call him "Wit." While in East Side Joe was a member of our track team and won a few medals to remember it. We're all sure he will be a success at whatever career he chooses. Here's luck to a swell guy.

Susie Mae Wrazz
203 Mulberry Street

Susie will be remembered by her fellow cooking students for her famous rendition of "I'm Looking Over a Four-Leaf Clover". Ask her to sing it for you sometime; it will be a treat for you. Seriously, Susie won an award from the School Library for reading the most books in 1949. If you knew Susie and her fine ways, you would know that she'll succeed at anything.

Charles John Zarcone

195 Vanderpool Street

Quiet and unassuming, Charlie is hardly noticed by his classmates; but to those who know him he is a real friend and companion. We are sure his quiet manner will some day lead to success.

John Zavocki

12 Wall Street

John is undecided as to his career and may continue his schooling. But one thing certain in our minds is the fact that he is a number one athlete. He was City champ in pole-vaulting for two years, is a County Record Holder, is Board of Education champ for 1950, and came in second in the State pole-vaulting contest.

Philomena Zinni

404 South 6th Street

Phil, as we all know her, is a very friendly girl. She is always willing and ready to join the fun and merriment. She works after school besides working hard in school. She will be a very efficient and pleasant secretary.

Class History

Hey there! Come here! And you too, friend! Gather around as we tell you a little of our high school history.

Let's start from the beginning—January 1947. We were just out of grammar school, and on the first day of the new term we hurried up the front steps to get to our homeroom on time. Once we became acquainted with the homeroom teacher we began writing out this and that until our arms were numbed. We also were introduced to our advisers, Miss Nellie Smith and Mr. "Louie" Horwitz, who were to lead us through our four years at school.

The bell rang for the start of the school session and we walked into the halls to go to our subject classes. We walked in circles a few times, unable to find certain rooms, but with the assistance of an upper-classman we finally reached our destination. The day went quickly but at the end we were changed people. Instead of the unworrying children without any homework or cares, we were perplexed pupils with too much of the same.

At our first assembly, we met Mr. Wilmot, the principal. Pictured by us as an executioner holding a well-honed ax, we found him to be a friend and a pleasant man.

The clubs and teams at East Side attracted many of us. Some of our athletically-minded boys joined the various teams; others, musically inclined, entered the vocal or orchestral groups; a few of us became members of the Announcer staff, while the rest either partook in other activities or none at all. School events were many during our first term. Because of our youthful enthusiasm, we always managed to be present at these affairs.

We became sophs, much to our surprise, and once again we had to put our heads to the grind.

It was in this year that Mr. Wilmot retired. Tears were shed but his seat was taken by another nice guy, Mr. Henry A. McCracken.

As Junior B's we realized that we needed class officers, so an election was held. The results were as follows: President, John Cavicchia; Vice President, Anthony Valente; Secretary, Joe Segreto; Treasurer, Michael Buschetti.

In this same year we sponsored a Magic Show which was a huge success. At the show everyone was amused by "Mandrake's" antics and with the aid of "Lothar" he performed some interesting tricks.

It was at our Halloween Dance, held during the latter part of our Junior year, that everyone had the opportunity to show his dancing ability. Lovers of progressive music, bopped; mambo lovers, mamboed; the more refined, waltzed; while those possessing over-active tongues wagged them in throwing the bull in the four corners of the gym.

Once again elections were held for class officers. Joe Volpe became President; Pat Attanasio, Vice President; John Sabin, Secretary; and Artie Dres, Treasurer.

During our Senior year, we had a million and one things to do. For one, we were hosts at a floor show and dance that featured tap dancers, an accordionist, an opera singer, vocal selections by East Side's own Sonny Calello, and discordant notes, as always, by Mr. DiNardo's "hopefuls".

Since we were Seniors, we were given the privilege of wearing flowers at Senior Rec. Chic dresses and high heels were worn by the girls, while the boys were equipped with well-padded suits, key chains which could be rotated about the finger, and a few "expensive" nickel cigars. As at every Rec., cameras clicked to our well-rehearsed poses.

The Prom was the next event of importance and we prepared earnestly for it. On the big night, the couples pulled up in their imitation Cadillacs. The girls were attired in bright-colored, low cut gowns, while the boys wore "husky" dinner jackets. None of us remember what happened after that, for all that could be recalled were the tastes of black coffee and bromo seltzer the following morning.

Our 12B elections turned out as follows: President, Bill Brenner; Vice President, Pat Attanasio; Secretary, Eleanor Lorcza; and Treasurer, Jimmy Rodrigues.

The 12A term introduced the following officers: President, Bill Brenner; Vice President, Pat Attanasio; Secretary, Eleanor Lorcza; and Treasurer, Louis Nitti.

At the Senior Rec., of which we were the home team, the usual prevailed. Zoot-suited lads, and lasses wearing the latest styles from Paris, walked about, casting a downward glance at the lower classmen.

At our Square Dance, "dungareed" girls wearing their brothers' shirts, and boys in L'il Abner shoes promenaded to the tune of "Get Up You Lazy Critter."

About this time of the year, our class treasurer was busy trying to extract class dues from the delinquents who didn't pay.

Yes, friend, that's about it, with the exception of Graduation Day. On that day we will for the last time march into the auditorium to receive our diplomas and end the final chapter in our high school history.

So long, friend, and thanks for listening.

Class Athletes

After graduation, in the years to come, there will be many things we will forget. But among the few things we will remember will be the class athletes, since it isn't easy to forget the boys who have given us thrills and chills on the various athletic fields.

We have seen a City Championship baseball team. John Natale was the starting second baseman on that team. A powerful football squad was captained by Johnny Nottle and Tony Valente. Jim Viero and Johnny Sabin were two of our best defensive backs. Sal Picariello called the signals and Tom Marasco played line. Mickey Rainone and Jimmy Rodrigues added to the reserve strength.

Johnny Zavocki proved his ability on the track team. Zavocki copped many a pole vault first and came near to setting a record height. Joe Wladyka and Tony Valente also took their share of track points. The basketball team with John Nottle guarding the boards and John Zavocki's one-handed push shots, had speedy Elias Martinez to tie up the opposition.

The year 1948 brought a City Championship swimming team. Fred Klena, Artie Dres and Nick Serio were our best on that team.

It will take only the smell of liniment to remind these boys of their high school days. But the rest of us who stood on the sidelines will remember their hard-fought battles with every sport we witness.

Senior Reception

October 27, 1950

Recollections

We'll never forget our first day at East Side and the friendly welcome we received.

We'll never forget the all-girl homeroom in 205 and the excitement whenever a boy entered that room.

We'll never forget Mr. Jannone's voice as he dictated to the typists as we passed his room.

We'll always recall Miss Cleary's long, intricate math explanations for which there was always too little time.

Judge Ferguson, thumping the desk with her gavel, will never be forgotten by us.

We'll never forget "Spike" Schwartz, nor the topics we'd bring up for discussion in order to retard class work.

Never to be forgotten is Mr. Kessler, the traffic cop, directing the flow of traffic on the second floor.

We'll always remember Mr. Lumb and the surprise on our faces when he led the auditorium in a cheer for the baseball team.

Lingering in our minds forever are the East Side dances, and our high hopes that everyone in the East Side Orchestra would finish on time and together.

Mr. Bogatko's casual manner of speaking and, of course, his championship baseball team will always be remembered.

Unforgotten till the end of time are Mr. Grubel and his "extry" hard tests, "by golly."

The rotten egg odor of hydrogen sulphide, which we prepared in the lab, will remain with us, unfortunately, as will the frowns of the critical pupils passing in the hallway.

Angelo's trombone voice booming "Get out, I'll throw you out. I'll throw you all out!" will ring in our ears forever.

Mr. Horwitz and the blinding glaze of his baldness will linger within us.

Unforgettable are the H. A. M. or A. L. E. on the many documents from the office.

The days when we were almost late and had to cross the lawn in Independence Park, will always be remembered.

The thought of Mr. McCracken, escorting the girls out the front entrance while the boys, across the way, dropped their snowballs from trembling hands will be with us eternally.

These and many more are past incidents, which, throughout our lives, will toll again and again in the belfries of memories.

ONE profession . . . and a MASTER at it

WHEN you choose the profession you're going to follow . . . choose carefully, slowly. When you've decided, select one phase of that profession . . . and then concentrate on it! SPECIALIZE, study and work at your specialty until you know more about it than anyone else in the world.

The creed of specialization and perfection applies universally; to the man who builds better mousetraps, to the surgeon, or the engineer . . . or the photographer.

Academy Yearbook Photographers are SPECIALISTS in that precise sense. We are YEARBOOK Photographers, interested only in creating ever-finer YEARBOOK pictures.

ARE YOU A HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT?

If you are, you can complement your career by adding Spanish to your English commercial studies.

Poza Business School

Offers you evening classes every Tuesday and Thursday in Spanish Stenography; Typing on Spanish keyboards; Translation of Commercial Correspondence; and Export-Documents.

ARE YOU A HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATE?

Our Bilingual Secretarial Course from 8:15 A.M. to 12:45 P.M., offers you the only opportunity to study Stenography; Typing; Bookkeeping; Export-Documents; Commercial Correspondence; Business Law; and all other subjects connected with Commercial studies in Spanish and English, during the morning hours and fulfill other obligations in the afternoons.

Spanish-English Secretaries are very much in demand and earn from 25% to 50% more than English Secretaries.

FREE EMPLOYMENT SERVICE TO OUR STUDENTS

Alma Mater

In the bustling city's bosom,
Like a gem most rare,
Shines the noblest of our treasures,
Shines our High School fair.

Chorus

Hail, all hail, dear East Side High School,
Green thy memory be;
By the bond of happy hours
Are we bound to thee.

In the field, the hall, the city,
Loyal to thy name,
Be it ever our endeavor
Far to spread thy fame.

Down the vista may we see thee
Of advancing age,
Never dimmed though farther distant,
Youth's bright heritage.

Then unite in loyal praises,
Ere the glad days run,
In the world are many high schools,
In our hearts but ONE.

JAMES H. TUCKLEY
